INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

On June 29, 1995, Lieutenant Ron Tardiff and Sergeants Gary Huggins and Paul Stemmler of the Internal Affairs Bureau proceeded to the intersection of 2nd Street and Pacific Avenue in San Pedro, to review a Deputy-Involved Shooting Incident. The shooting occurred in the parking lot of the Top Value Market at 111 South Pacific Avenue, which is located at the northeast corner of the intersection.

The location of the shooting incident is inside the Los Angeles City limits and is within the law enforcement jurisdiction of the Los Angeles Police Department. Investigators from the L.A.P.D. Robbery Homicide Division and the Officer Involved Shooting Section responded to the scene to handle the primary investigation.

Sheriff's Department Homicide Lieutenant Ray Peavy and Detectives Ray Rodriguez and Ron Bosket were present at the scene and had been assigned to monitor the incident. Deputy District Attorney Bill Seki and District Attorney Investigator Norman Biehn were also present. Internal Affairs Bureau Investigators were briefed at the scene by Lieutenant Peavy.

Internal Affairs Bureau Investigators were forwarded copies of the Homicide Bureau Executive Notification Memorandum (Exhibit A) and a Homicide Bureau Supplemental Report (Exhibit B), which included an attached diagram of the shooting location. Internal Affairs Investigators also obtained copies of several L.A.P.D. reports (Arrest, Preliminary Investigation and Follow-Up Investigation) under DR# 95-0521960 (Exhibit C), that recorded additional information about the incident.

The following summary of the incident is based on reports and memoranda contained in this review packet and verbal briefings by Homicide Investigators. This summary is preliminary in nature and does not contain an interview with Deputy Raymond Bernasconi. The summary of his actions was developed from memoranda and reports which are included in this review.

Mr. () is a Los Angeles Police Officer currently and he was also off-duty at the time of the incident.
I.A.B. NOTE:	Officer is depicted in a photograph (Exhibit D) contained in this review packet with long hair and a beard. His appearance is explained by noting that he was working a temporary duty assignment as an undercover officer investigating receivers of stolen property.

Deputy Bernasconi and Officer had left a nearby cocktail lounge a short time earlier and they stopped in the parking lot to talk. Both officers were dressed in civilian clothes at the time. As the officers were talking, a male black (later identified as Suspect Terris Crews) approached the open driver's window, while two other male blacks approached the open passenger window of the vehicle.
